SUBJECTIVE:

CC: Mood disorder, Unhappy with current dx

HPI: CM returns today because he is pursuing disability and feels that the correct dx is bipolar but that is not how Dr. Potts dx him. I let him know that I do not know him well enough and do not have enough records to determine the best fit dx. I acknowledged that after his initial visit I had significant dx uncertainty. I also let him know that for the most part I do not help a patient pursue disability without having had a treatment relationship of about a year. He is currently taking Cymbalta which he got from his pain management doctor but he continues to reveal a negative world view in which he is almost always misunderstood and victimized. He reports multiple conflicts with others including his current therapist Paul Johnson. He would like me to call Paul Johnson to discuss his case which I agree to do. He also would like his medical records which I agree to provide.

SUBJECTIVE:

CC: H/O bipolar disorder, depression, alcohol and sex addiction, chronic pain

HPI: CM is a 31 y.o. married hispanic male with an unstable and chaotic childhood that included sexual abuse who began drinking at 13 y.o. and who has struggled with a broad range of psychiatric symptoms since that time. He is both avoidant and highly circumstantial and the history he provides is fragmented and difficult to follow. His primary concern is his physical pain and he makes it clear that is his priority even as he touches upon several psychiatric issues. He has been sober for the last two years and attends AA and has a sponsor. He also has a therapist who he says has helped him control his anxiety. However he has been looking at online dating sites and also porn which he says will typically lead him to acting out. He wants to stop but is unable to control himself. His wife has been on him about this which leads to conflict between them. He says he knows he needs to go to treatment center for this problem but when I ask him if he is pursuing this he provides several reasons why he isn't. He has been physically violent towards her in the past and says that he sometimes will threaten to kill her if she leaves him and takes their daughter. He says that when he makes these threats both he and she know he doesn't mean it. He says that he was referred her by Dr. Friedman who believes many of his pain complaints and problems are 'psychological in nature.' He reports being in disputes with his PCP, insurance company and Dr. Friedman and tends to externalize his problems. He denies being depressed although he c/o of chronic shoulder and global pain while commenting, 'you'd be sad to if your body hurt all the time.' He says that Dr. Friedman was no longer willing to provide him ativan and his primary agenda in seeing me is to get ativan which he says helps stop painful muscle spasms and also diminishes his anxiety. He describes his anxiety as feeling shaky in the morning or feeling 'weird... like my body isn't right.' He acknowledges believing that unless his pain gets treated he will die. He says that he has discussed this with his physicians all of whom think this is crazy. He denies SI but acknowledges thinking sometimes that being dead would relieve him of pain. He also feels like he is a burden on others. He remains in a dispute with his ex-wife over child care of their son and has recently reported her to CPS because he believes she is neglecting their boy who has ADHD. He says her son told him that she is having sex for money with him in the house. He denies current or past psychotic symptoms. When I ask him about his symptoms pattern when depressed he is vague and it is difficult to confirm adh/o of Major Depressive Episodes. I also asked him about manic episodes and got a similarly opaque response. I reviewed the symptoms with him and he denied most of them but when I asked about the full syndrome he said, 'I'm sure I've had something like that.' Denies self mutilation.

PMH/FMH/SH: PPHX- One suicide attempt by lighting his own shirt on fire in 2009. He says he put the fire out himself however he was voluntarily admitted to ASH at that time. Denies any other hospitalizations or suicide attempts. Reports being treated for depression in the army with sertraline. He says it caused diarrhea and he stopped it. Was also treated in the MHMR with Abilify at which time he was dx. with bipolar disorder. Unable to get clear symptom picture and related history to confirm or refute dx.

PMHX- Cervical spondylosis without myelopathy, hyperhidrosis, scrotal pain

Meds- Ativan, Ibuprofen, Robinul

ALL- Neurontin and Oxybutin- sounds more like med side effects eg shaking and nausea

FHx- Father Bipolar, Aunt Schizophrenia

SHx- One of two raised by mother and grandparents. Was close to grandfather and moved between grandparents and his mother and stepfathers house. Was sexually molested by an older male neighbor who taught he and his brother to fondle each other. Was a good student and was also an accomplished wrestler going to the state championships. Began binge drinking at 13 and also used cocaine. Says that he was 'taken advantage of' by some fellow soldiers when he was doing cocaine with them in the service. Has done mostly manual labor but says he was very smart in school but he moved a lot and his drinking prevented him from being in the top ten of his class. His first marriage was stormy and he and his wife were 'swingers.' His current wife is older than him. He has trouble trusting her and sometimes feels she manipulates him into fights. He is currently embroiled in several conflicts: 1. With insurance company over getting an MRI, 2. With Dr. Friedman over ativan 3. With ex wife over child care- has gone to CPS 4. He apparently was charged with criminal trespass for going back into the hospital after he was discharged- details vague.

MSE- 31 y.o. short hispanic male carrying briefcase of his records, casually dressed, decently groomed, fair eye contact,

ASSESSMENT: Very puzzling presentation of a young man with chronic pain, alcohol and cocaine abuse in remission, sexual addiction and prior dx of depression and bipolar disorder. Rather than describe his interior experience he immediately associates to his surrounding environment and describes details that lead him away from attending to himself. He appears to have little sense of control over himself or his life and often sees himself as a victim. Currently the only clear psychiatric problems he reports are his sexual addiction and anxiety. He does seem depressed to me though he does not report symptoms consistent with a MDD. It is also possible that he is malingering in an effort to get benzos which would be consistent with his prior substance abuse. However my sense is that he is depressed. He may have MDD, Dysthymia or even Bipolar though I would need old records or collateral history to assess this. It also seems likely that he has a personality disorder with cluster B traits. Because of his anxiety, chronic pain and at least some evidence for depression I recommended a trial of an AD. He was not interested in an AD. I let him know that I am unwilling to provide a benzo given his h/o of etoh abuse and the fact that his primary use for it appears to be pain management. I encouraged him to continue in his therapy and to pursue a focused treatment for his sexual addiction. I let him know that he is welcome to f/u with me but I did not set up a return eval. Instead I gave him my card and asked him to call and schedule if he would like to return. My reasoning for this is that he seemed very unmotivated for care here. If he chooses to call and schedule that would demonstrate motivation on his end.

Mr. Medina -

If Dr. El Ni Hum would like for Dr. Friedman to see you for another opinion, I will ask him and see if he will reconsider. But your appointment on December 3rd has already been cancelled and someone else scheduled in that place. You will need to follow up with Dr. El Ni Hum for the MRI of the lumbar spine also.

Take care -

4. I was sick for the original hearing also asked that Paul Johnson be subpoena to come to original hearing to give his expert first hand experience on mental illness.

The World Health Organization's ICD-10 defines a disorder that is conceptually similar to borderline personality disorder, called (F60.3) Emotionally unstable personality disorder. Its two subtypes are described below.<sup>[40]</sup>

F60.30 Impulsive type

At least three of the following must be present, one of which must be (2):

1. marked tendency to act unexpectedly and without consideration of the consequences;
2. marked tendency to engage in quarrelsome behavior and to have conflicts with others, especially when impulsive acts are thwarted or criticized;
3. liability to outbursts of anger or violence, with inability to control the resulting behavioral explosions;
4. difficulty in maintaining any course of action that offers no immediate reward;
5. unstable and capricious (impulsive, whimsical) mood.

F60.31 Borderline type

At least three of the symptoms mentioned in F60.30 Impulsive type must be present [see above], with at least two of the following in addition:

1. disturbances in and uncertainty about self-image, aims, and internal preferences;

2. liability to become involved in intense and unstable relationships, often leading to emotional crisis;
3. excessive efforts to avoid abandonment;
4. recurrent threats or acts of self-harm;
5. chronic feelings of emptiness.
6. demonstrates impulsive behavior, e.g., speeding, substance abuse

5. Came to Rick legal for help on Brazos Club ban and help for legal suit against them which also still in process through district court. did not offer assistance said go other meetings due transportation where lived at time and school schedule was not able to which was recommendation by Paul Johnson in treatment plan.

6. Instead holding original hearing instead proceeding to Sanction hearing I was not allowed present medical documents that instructors ignored. Second never had any disciplinary problems in school and suspension to harsh of punishment. Leaving me even worse financial sceneriario of course the panel be agreed with Conflict Resolutions because unaware of medical documents as evidence. It not fair trial as I would have in court criminal or civil.

7. I told Maria about the problems I had even gave her hard copy which is label emails to teachers and Facebook did not about it.

8. I have made indiviual copies and presentations of all the emails sent on file plus after the suspension.

9 CC and mass emails are part of my mental illness as I have trust issues but greatly impacted by poor job by instructors and staff handling of the case.

10. Therefore you see clear violation of my civil rights.

11. I ask to be reinstated to Texas A&M University in Sports Management department that I was accepted into before suspension. I also asked for 1000 dollars in damages and credit for 4,000 dollars for loss of a semester due to staff mistakes. Also emotional distress by self and my wife and son.

12. Financial aid I have been active in job search but no offers expect woody's gags and gifts but due to my addiction I did not take that job. My Self Sufficient Counselor Carmen can vouch for me every month have appointment with her.

13. Genora Freeman DR Skoal that one that said have formal thought disorder said that need physiological testing you did nothing about is on file with school and I have a copy.

14. Dr Neislon sweating doctor can also confirm that in process trying get redo surgery help me perform better. That one reason miss the original hearing along with sleep patterns of chronic pain.

15 also pain doctor can confirm burst of anger due to chronic pain, Also mental doctor.

To whom it may concern:

Christopher Jason Medina has submitted documentation of multiple diagnoses to our office. His diagnoses include Generalized Anxiety Disorder, Mood Disorder, Depressive Disorder, Chronic Pain, hyperhidrosis, history of substance abuse. The documentation submitted also lists a host of other issues such as obsessive compulsive personality tendencies and narcissistic tendencies. He has also submitted a list of multiple medications he takes to manage the symptoms of the disorders. In his e-mails, Christopher also references sex addiction and multiple legal issues. Christopher asked me to state my observations in this letter, I have observed him to walk using a cane and he often wears a neck brace. I have also observed Christopher to carry a towel which is drenched in sweat from what I assume to be a symptom of hyperhidrosis. During our appointments, he often complains of knee and shoulder pain, difficulty with transportation issues, financial constraints, and of a compulsion to repeatedly send e-mails to different individuals. Christopher finds it difficult to concentrate on schoolwork when he has a number of other stressors and legal issues. He has repeatedly asked his instructors to postpone exam dates and due dates. Our Documentation Review Committee reviewed the available information and determined that he qualifies for services for students with disabilities. I understand that he is appealing some decisions and asked me to document his registration with our office. He has been registered with our office this semester and has requested the following accommodations:

- Extended testing time on all exams, quizzes, and tests
- Testing in a less distracting environment
- Note taking assistance

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Dear Instructor:

Thank you in advance for working with our students with disabilities at Texas A&M University. This letter is to inform you that Christopher Medina, ID#: 809007799 has registered with our office as a student who qualifies for services for students with disabilities. Please remember that a student's disability is considered confidential information and should not be shared with anyone except those who have an educational need to know as defined by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

Disability Services has reviewed and verified the student's documentation and has determined the following accommodations to be reasonable and appropriate:

- Extended testing time of 1.5 times on all tests, quizzes and examinations.
- Student may need to leave class due to his/her disability.
- Student will require notetaking assistance. There are several means of meeting this accommodation request. One option is to provide the student with a copy of your lecture notes and/or slides. Another option is to identify a student volunteer by announcing to the class or e-mailing the class that there is a student who needs the assistance of a notetaker (without identifying which student). You may want to mention that several student organizations on campus award community service points for this volunteer activity. Ask interested students to meet with you and the student with a disability after class. The student with a disability should be able to explain what he/she needs from the volunteers.
- Testing in a reduced distraction environment (e.g., your office, a small conference room, the Disability Services Testing Administration Center).

The student is responsible for scheduling a time to discuss the above accommodations in order to meet his/her needs as well as your course requirements. If you or the student find that you have any questions or concerns regarding the accommodation requests or how to implement them, please meet to discuss them. If you find you need further assistance or feel you need guidance about making a decision about an accommodation request, please do not hesitate to call me at (979) 845 - 1637 or e-mail me at the address below.

Below are some resources that may be helpful as you work to implement the requested accommodations:

Regarding Case Number: 2013014701

Dear Christopher:

You are suspended from Texas A&M University. This suspension takes effect Tuesday, October 1, 2013, and will remain in effect through Friday, December 12, 2014.

Please be advised that you must re-apply to the University and meet all established University criteria and deadlines for re-enrollment and/or re-application in the current Undergraduate and Graduate Catalog. For more information on how to re-apply, please visit the Admissions website at <http://admissions.tamu.edu/readmit>. In addition, students who have been separated from the university for student conduct reasons must present a request for reinstatement in writing to the Student Conflict Resolution Services Office as part of this re-enrollment/re-application process.

Prior to your return to Texas A&M University, the following sanction is to be completed:

You are to provide proof that you completed a professional assessment to discuss the issues identified as a result of this incident and as it relates to effective communication and coping with stress. You may complete this assessment with a professional of your choice, external to Texas A&M University resources. You may If you have further questions regarding this sanction, you may contact Student Conduct Services at 979.847.7272.

Upon your re-enrollment at Texas A&M University, the following sanctions will be effective immediately:

First, you are being placed on Conduct Probation to remain in effect through your graduation at Texas A&M University. During the term of this sanction you are considered "not in good standing" with Texas A&M University for disciplinary reasons. Please refer to paragraph 27.1.3 of the Texas A&M University Student Rules for a list of other restrictions which may apply.

In addition, you are required to visit the Student Counseling Service to discuss the various issues that were uncovered as a result of this incident. Specifically, you are to discuss the issues related to effective and appropriate communication with other individuals and coping with the stressors of college life. To do this you must go to the following website and register <https://scs.tamu.edu/secure/> completing all parts of the registration process except setting an appointment time. To obtain an appointment, after you complete the registration information, call 979.845.4427, and tell the receptionist that you have completed the online registration information and have been referred directly by Student Conflict Resolution Services. You must provide proof of this visit to this office within 30 days of your return to Texas A&M University.

You are also required to develop a Behavioral Contract to outline the appropriate behavior and effective means of communication for a Texas A&M University student. You must contact Student Conduct Services to receive further information to schedule a meeting with a staff member to complete this requirement. You must complete this sanction within 15 days of your re-enrollment at Texas A&M University. You may contact our office at 979.847.7272 for any questions relating to this sanction.

This action is being taken as a result of your violation of the Student Conduct Code contained in the University Student Rules. During your conduct conference conducted on Tuesday, October 1, 2013 with Justin R. Ellis, Jaclyn Upshaw-Brown, Krista Bailey, Lyndon Pryor, and myself, the following findings were made:

1. [24.4.2.] Harassment. Behavior that is severe, pervasive or persistent to a degree that a reasonable person similarly situated would be prevented from accessing an educational opportunity or benefit. This behavior includes, but is not limited to, verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, and coercion. In addition, harassment may be conducted by a variety of mediums, including but not limited to, physical, verbal, graphic, written, or electronic.

by persistently sending harassing email communications to numerous Texas A&M University administrators, faculty, and staff on or about the spring, summer, and fall semesters of 2013 – Found Responsible

The rationale for this decision is based upon documented persistent harassing emails sent to members of the campus community. This information was provided in the student's case file.

You are hereby reminded of your right to appeal this decision by 5:00 pm on October 8, 2013.

Enclosed is a copy of the University Disciplinary Appeals Panel procedures. If you choose to exercise this right, then you must do so in writing to Dr. CJ Woods, Chair of the University Disciplinary Appeals Panel, Koldus Student Services Building – Suite 117, 979.845.4728. You may find more information regarding the University panel appeal process by visiting <http://studentlife.tamu.edu/scrs/scs> or reviewing Student Rule 58 at <http://student-rules.tamu.edu/rule58>.

As a Texas A&M student, you are required to uphold the community standards outlined in the University Student Rules and symbolized by the Aggie Code of Honor. Should you have questions concerning this matter, please contact me at 979.847.7272.

Regarding Case Number: 2013014701

Dear Christopher:

The purpose of this letter is to confirm to you in writing the decision of the University Disciplinary Appeals Panel regarding your appeal held on Friday, October 25, 2013.

University Disciplinary Appeals Panel Decision:

On Friday, October 25, 2013, the University Disciplinary Appeals Panel convened to consider your appeal. The basis for your appeal was severity of sanctions. The Panel reviewed the decision of the Student Life Conduct Panel made on Tuesday, October 1, 2013. Based on the information presented and heard during the appeal, the University Disciplinary Panel upheld the decision of the Student Life Conduct Panel. Therefore, the sanction of suspension from Texas A&M University effective October 1, 2013 will remain in effect through December 12, 2014.

All decisions by the University Disciplinary Appeals Panel are made by a majority vote.

Christopher, it is important to recognize that the Texas A&M University community has standards with which everyone must comply. We hope that you will reflect on the behaviors that led to this situation and will use this experience to influence the quality of your future decisions and actions.

Please contact me at (979) 845-4728 should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Subject: Appeal for Academic Suspension Case Number 2013014701

Dear Dr. Woods:

My name is Christopher Medina and I have received email regarding my case decision. The email states that I am now suspended until December 12, 2013. I am writing this appeal letter in hopes that university will reconsider my suspension. I have just transfer to Texas A&M University on spring 2013, it has been somewhat a bumpy road but I can see things are starting to look better.

I have to admit I had a very difficult start, I do not mean to make excuses for my action, but I would like to explain the circumstances. I registered 15 credit hours in on spring semester so that I was on track to graduate on time. I thought I could handle the work load, and I still think I could have, except my physical condition is become worse. I had to wear neck brace and using cane and I had been admitted to Emergency Room at College Station Medical Center and St. Joseph Center during spring semester (Exhibit 1). Not mentioned that I also having facial hyperhidrosis (excessive facial sweating) that last 16 - 18 hours per episode. I did not have my own transportation and I have to ride the city bus which have limited hours so I could not attend Supplemental Instruction (SI) for one my class. If I attend the SI I have to walk home approximately 3 miles. Needless to say, the trip back and forth to ER and doctors appointment cut into my study time and I was unable to focus on my schoolwork.

Besides my physical conditions that influence my school performance, I have also had several mental disorders issues (Exhibit 2). I was diagnosed with General Anxiety Disorder, Mood Disorder, and Depressive Disorder along with obsessive compulsive personality and narcissistic tendencies. I also have been registered with Student Disabilities Services since spring semester (Exhibit 3). I requested note taking assistance but I never have it. To be honest, I was very disappointed, I felt that nobody understand what I have been through and could not give assistance when I needed. I was started to losing my motivation and easily get distraction. I was on suicidal indention and referred to be watched under my wife care (Exhibit 4).

Also currently have law suit against Brazos Club it is building where most of meetings are held for Alcohol Anonymous. It was mandatory by my psychologist, Paul Johnson to attend the 12 step meeting.

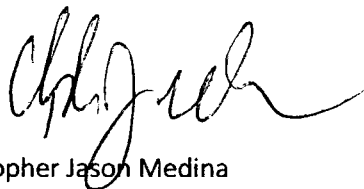

The confusion through the massive mass communication to Texas A&M University staff, financial and my legal problems had created unresolved conflict and I believe it led into this suspension. My compulsive nature tried to communicate without giving it much thought. I am in process of getting a new counselor and ask questions about new coping techniques and go to student counseling service at Texas A & M while in search of the new counselor.

With all these circumstances, I tried to communication with my professors regarding my conditions. After I got my grades, I tried to appeal it since in my opinion I have the right to do that. However, during the process, with my compulsive behavior I have tendencies to copy and forward the email to everybody that I think it was involved. Since nobody told me what I should have done regarding the process I thought I did the right thing, but I was wrong I did not know that my act is against the student rule under harassment which is not my intention at all. Until I got email that I was violated one of the student rule. Also finally I received reply from Dr. Ellis on how to appeal the grade. I understand now that I should communicate effectively with my professors or my department instead of sending mass email communications to everybody.

I was waiting for 13 years to get accepted to Texas A&M University, and it would mean so much to graduate with a degree from this school, which would make me the first person on my mother side to complete a degree. This semester I have my new accommodation counselor, Dr. Kristie Orr, whom very helpful with providing me notes taking assistance or advice. I also take evening classes instead of morning classes when I mostly have more pain or hyperhidrosis episode. Fortunately, I will move to a new apartment that on Texas A & M bus route by the end of October. So I do not have to worry about transportation anymore. Now that I have finally got everything under control, I feel that a suspension would be very counter-productive. Please understand that my behavior that led to my suspension does not indicate that I am a bad student. I am a hard working student who unfortunately has a bad physical condition along with mental disorder.

Thank you for considering this appeal.

Sincerely,
